DEDICATION

Untiring devotion to duty and a kindly personality tells us of Miss Ruth Spangler who for many years guided the Gettysburg High School yearbook staff. We of the 1953 Cannon-Aid staff wish to dedicate this yearbook to the shining memory of a beloved teacher.

Our Critic

Our heartfelt thanks and admiration we extend to Mr. Rogers Herr who guided the green, unexperienced members of our staff. His sense of humor never failed him although sometimes it was sorely strained.

Our Class Advisers

Mrs. Ruth Wisler and Mr. George Glenn, nursemaids to the Class of 1953, led us through the trials of our four years in G.H.S. They helped us plan our activities and counseled us in our work. We wish to thank them sincerely for their untiring efforts.

Mr.
Lefever

Democracy has no classes: all individuals are free and equal in their rights and responsibilities. This being the case, all of you should have gotten from your training a sound base for adequate, wholesome living. Beyond this point, you are on your own. Progress will depend on the use you make of your talents, training and ambitions.

Mr.
Keefauver

Congratulations to the members of the Class of 1953.

Many people and agencies have united to make possible your educational opportunities. Your achievement results largely from your application to your school work. As you grow in knowledge and experience ever increasing opportunities will be open to you. Your success will be limited only by your willingness to work and serve.

In Memory of

Richard Boyd, our friend and classmate for many years, was always full of fun and mischief. His bright and cheery ways will be sadly missed by his classmates.

Heaven gave him all at once ; then snatch'd away,
Ere mortals all his beauties could survey ;
Just like the flower that buds and withers in a day.

SENIOR BIOGRAPHIES

VIOLA ALBRIGHT—This girl prefers fried chicken, apple pie "a la mode," dancing and popular music. "Vi," who is looking forward to marriage to a certain soldier, remembers when she received her glittering ring. She shuns stuck-up people. "Holy cow," mutters this gal.

EDWIN BACHMAN—"Oh my gosh!" how "Ed" hates chemistry quizzes and homework. He really goes for hamburgs, French fries and cherry ice cream. Being picked as co-sports editor of the "Maroon and White" certainly pleased this lad, who will enter G-Burg College in the fall.

WILLIAM BAGOT—This future salesman remembers his first day in G.H.S. as a pretty swell experience. "Bill" hates homework but his enjoyment of skating and shrimp makes up for it. "Told you so" will express his opinion anywhere.

CAROLINE BARAL—This saxophone player has fond memories of her first day in Gettysburg High School. "Carol" really likes French fries. "No kidding" says "Carol" when she thinks back over her days in school.

MARY LOU BARR—"Are you kidding?" questions "Peggy" when asked if she likes fried chicken and football games. This future typist turns thumbs down to showoffs. A vacation in Hartford, Conn., will always be remembered by this girl.

JOHN BEEGLE—"Reb" is planning to become a chiropractor after graduation. This lad, who detests those chemistry experiments, often expresses himself by exclaiming "what-cha sayin'?" He is exceedingly fond of fried chicken and sports and really remembers breaking the school record for the mile.

GEORGE BENDER—Girls that smoke and spectators that think they're better than the players are two of the pet peeves of "Sam." He likes sports and is fond of French fries, cherry pie and milkshakes. "Sam" says, "Aw, shucks," when someone mentions his winning the 1952 golf tournament.

VALJOY BENDER—"Val" would have completely enjoyed her years at G.H.S. if she could have disposed of people who associate in a closed group. This attractive gal enjoys hiking and can be heard to express herself thus—"You tryin' to jive me dub?"

FRED BOWER—"Hotte" really likes baseball, but he exclaims "Chase away John!" when he remembers the time he was hit in the head with a golf ball. Fred says he's uncertain about going to college but he does know he likes Maryland fried chicken.

BONNIE BRYSON—"Bonnie" is a gal who really dislikes English speeches but horseback riding and drawing she enjoys. "Oh, my gosh!" exclaimed this senior over winning the Sesqui-Centennial Seal Contest. Planning to be a commercial artist, "Bonnie" will attend Kutztown College.

JOHN CARTER—"Monty," lover of sports and food, who is looking ahead to a future of coaching, really gets peeved by people who think they know it all. This senior will always remember scoring a touchdown in his senior year.

JOHN CLAPSADDLE—"Jack" is particularly fond of beef steak, shrimp, and ice cream. This future fruit farmer likes to spend his spare time hunting. "I have said" is a favorite saying of "Jack," but girls who swear and drink don't rate at all with him.

PAUL CLAPSADL—You'll find "Charlie" roller skating and guzzling milkshakes and hamburgers during any leisure hours. Chemistry quiz time is definitely "taboo" to this fellow who wishes to repeat the F.F.A. week at Penn State—with more than twenty-four hours a day.

KATHERINE COLEMAN—This future history teacher really goes for steak and mushrooms, but exclaims "For pete's sake" at chemistry quizzes and jealous people. Swimming, reading, and going to football games are hits with "Kay," who won't forget those "hcn sessions" and being yearbook editor.

DEWEY COLLINS—This lad from 208-A hates too much homework. French fries and hamburgs make up "Screwball's favorite meal. Sports really appeal to this senior. The crystal ball leaves him guessing.

JOE CRABILL—"Joe's" just crazy about football, roller skating, and eating, but surely hates to do homework. "Well, holy heck," exclaims this potential plumber or mason who just loves to sink his teeth in a well-groomed banana split.

NITA DAVIS—"Ni," who plans to be a nurse in the future, likes to sew in her spare time. She is always glad to see French fries with her meals. People who gossip just don't rate and she shall never forget her first day at G.H.S.

RICHARD DAYHOFF—"You must be crazy with the heat!" exclaims "Gus" when confronted with homework or stuck-up girls. However, this athletic fellow really goes for steak and French fries. Winning the South Penn Football Championship is an experience this future college man won't forget.

WILLIAM DECKER—"Bill" has distinguished himself as a "clown" during his four years of hating homework and flunking speed tests. With "thumbs down" on stuck-up girls, you'll hear "Decker" yell "Hot dog, there you go!" when you mention our victory over York in basketball.

WILLIAM DEHAAS—This senior really goes for steaks smothered in mushrooms and memories of scoring a touchdown against Shippensburg. "Bill" likes movies but he can't stand those chemistry experiments. "Roll them" exclaims this fellow who plans to go to Penn State.

SENIOR BIOGRAPHIES

DONALD DENTLER—"Aw cut it out," "Don" tells people who act like snobs. Sports and ham rate top priority with this guy. The Christmas season of his junior year will be first in his list of memories.

ANNA MARY DIEHL—"Annie" dislikes people who aren't courteous but "gads" she really goes for cheeseburgers, dancing, and roller skating. Being initiated into the "Mask and Wig" is what "Annie" will always remember most. After graduation she hopes to attend business school.

WILLIAM DILLMAN—"Bill," who plans to be a chef, is fond of cooking and eating beef stew. "Honesty is the best policy" are his words to the wise as he recalls his first day at G.H.S.

DALE DOLLY—Judging at Penn State is the most memorable experience of "Dale," who likes to spend his spare time lifting weights or drinking milkshakes. He is often heard saying, "That's right cool," but not about people who use "ponies" in chemistry class. "Dale" hopes to enter Penn State.

FAYE DOLLY—Her first day in G.H.S. is the most memorable experience of "Pee Wee," who likes to spend her time bowling or collecting white pennies. "It's a force of habit" for "Pee Wee" to be fond of sea foods, especially shrimp. Conceited people don't rate very high with this future nurse.

PAUL EICHOLTZ—Tops on "Itchy's list is angel food cake, but conceited people really hit the bottom. He likes to work on his TV set and exclaims "Cheese and crackers" when he remembers the time he danced on television. Radio school is in the future.

RICHARD EVERSOLE, JR.—"Don't let it worry you" advises this fan of West Virginia style fried chicken. "Dick" dislikes girls who smoke and people labeled snobs. Roller skating is his favorite pastime. In the crystal ball "Dick" sees Franklin and Marshall College.

RODNEY FELIX—"Rod" is planning to attend college—a future newspaperman from Penn State. This lad really remembers the Pennsylvania Press Conference in Allentown in 1950. Sports, music, and girls make "Rod" happy, but he frowns when he hears girls swear.

ELLEN FISCLE—High heels worn with socks don't rate very high with "Mandy," who is very fond of chile con carne on top of mashed potatoes. Collecting colored movie star pictures takes up her extra time. "Mandy," who can be heard saying "Don't know, do ya?" well remembers her sophomore year and the bus ride to the farm show.

MARLIN FISCEL—Naturally our star athlete's hobby is sports but as for playing records he thinks "That's okay" too. "Skip," who sees college in the future, frowns upon girls that crack gum but gives out with his broad smile at spaghetti and pot pie. Winning a Hershey football game in the rain and mud will never be forgotten.

ANN FORTENBAUGH—Sea food and sports appeal to this peppy senior who hates irresponsibility. This future kindergarten teacher who can be heard saying "Upon my soul," during a "hen session," best remembers Christmas vacation her junior year and being elected co-feature editor of the "Maroon and White."

SENIOR BIOGRAPHIES

DOLORES FREW—"Dut" is interested in girls' sports and twirling a baton as a hobby. She hates reckless drivers and can't forget when she passed her first driver's test. After dancing with a certain fellow she whispers "Why he's neat."

SHIRLEY ANNE GEIGLEY Shirley Anne's hobby is music but "Oh, heavens" how she hates hill-billy. She craves steak with mushrooms and onions and her summers at Westminster Choir College are very memorable occasions.

MARY ANNE GEORGE—Dancing at Woodlawn and eating steak with French fries fill up this future private secretary's spare time. She fondly remembers being chosen as a cheerleader and will always miss it. When asked if she hates English speeches and P.D. quizzes she replies "You know it!"

JOYCE GUISE—"Holy cow!" "Joy" remarks when she sees "kids" smoking. This future secretary who can really play the accordion loves to read books and munch hamburgers with French fries.

DUANE HALL—"Hey now!" "Don's hobby is washing and shining cars while his inside activities include art work and drawing. A future IBM machine operator, he likes to recall his trip to Michigan and a tour of Henry Ford's Museum.

BARBARA HANKEY—"Belle" likes to see television but hates to see poodle hair cuts. Her favorite dish is T bone steaks and chocolate cake. She still remembers when water was thrown on her at a football game. "Well for pity sakes," how embarrassing!

JANET HANKEY—"Jan" plans to join the service but dancing and roller skating will always share her favorite pastime. She likes fried chicken and French fries but shuns stuck-up people

LEE HARTMAN—"Hoop" likes baseball and square dancing but turns his back on stuck-up girls. In his spare moments he listens to disc jockey programs and looks forward to a meal with steak smothered in mushrooms and French fries.

LOIS HARTMAN—Dancing, movies and popular music make up the favorite pastimes of "Linky" who intends to be a telephone operator. Stuck-up people really irk this senior who can never forget the time five girls were called to the office.

JAY HARTZELL—Playing baseball, reading sports books and pork chops rank high on this lad's list of favorites. Concerning people who think they're better than others he explains, "That stuff's gotta go!" A highlight in his memory includes his first roller coaster ride

MARIA HICKL—"Mickey" enjoys music especially opera and at meal time she can think of nothing better than macaroni with cheese and tomato sauce. Although she dislikes tests, she will never forget her year in America as an exchange student at G.H.S.

RANDALL HILL—"A. P." plans to attend Lehigh but he won't forget his appearance in "Mumbo Jumbo." Sports, steak, and dancing appeal very much to him while snobs are completely disregarded.

ROBERT HIXON—"Zombie" spends lots of time collecting pictures of sports and recording stars. "No kidding," he really detests English speeches but likes to listen to records and eat steak and hamburgers.

GERTRUDE HOWE—"Bless my buttons" states "Gertie" when she sees socks with high heels. This future secretary (or housewife) enjoys steak, swimming and skating while a certain trip to Atlantic City stands out in her memory.

ANITA INSKIP—"For pete's sake!" "Neety" shouts after hearing a corny joke. This future librarian naturally likes reading while fried oysters and mashed potatoes head her favorite menu. A Thanksgiving trip to Boston stands out as a memorable experience.

FRANCES JONES—"Josie" who loves to travel and make new friends spends lots of time dancing and collecting records. "Really" she explains when she sees socks with high heels. This future stenographer will never forget meeting Jackie Robinson, Campanella and Joe Black

JAMES JONES—"Jim" hopes to fly in the wild blue yonder. He dislikes those speeches in English class. There's nothing like records, French fries, fried chicken, and cake for this fellow who exclaims "Gee whiz!"

BRADLEY KEEFER—"Boy, you know it," remarks "Duddles" when quizzed about his future—who knows? ? ? ? He can't forget the time he got his driver's license. "Duddles" hates stuck-up people, but never complains about watching TV.

JOHN KEEFER—"Johnnie" has nothing definite planned for his future, but really goes for hunting and sea food. People who think they're better than the rest rate low with him. He often replies, "Don't get all salty about it!"

NANCY KETTERMAN—Through a crystal ball "Nance" can visualize clerking in a store. "Shoot!" she exclaims when she has homework to do. This senior likes to collect dogs, listen to records, and eat pie.

MARY LOUISE KIMPLE—"Where are you at," mutters "Louise" when she spies show offs. This future secretary who especially remembers getting her driver's license loves shrimp, lemon pie, TV and movies.

SENIOR BIOGRAPHIES

DORIS KINT "Uh," exclaims "Doris" when she thinks of her wonderful senior year. This future secretary adores chile con carne, mashed potatoes, canasta, and TV. She shuns a combination of dark blue and green.

CONNIE KLEPPINGER—"Connie," who plans to enter college then join the Navy, holds her visit to Juniata College in special remembrance. "Bologna" to bossy teachers, but horses, driving, and basketball never cease to please her.

FERN KLINEFELTER—Although "Fern" hasn't any plans for the future he goes all out for hamburgers and taking cars apart. This lad proclaims thumbs down for stuck-up people. "Hey now," will he ever forget the South Penn Conference winning football game? Not on your life!

DORIS KNOX—To settle down or join the WACS is the question facing "Doris," who will never erase her first date from her mind. She utters "For pity's sake!" over junior high students with no manners. Spanish rice and collecting souvenirs click with this lass WILLIAM KNOX—"Do you now!"—This senior really goes for hunting, fishing, spaghetti, and girls. This lad sees physical education in his future. People who act bigger than they are don't agree with "Bill," who says he'll never forget the 1953 Farm Show.

CURVIN KROUT, JR.—"Toby," who is planning to attend Kutztown College, will always remember drawing "Skip" in assembly and working on the year-book. "Oh, this is terrible," "Toby" proclaims while opposing a company of procrastinators and jealous people. He especially enjoys hamburgers, traveling, drawing, and attending movies.

JACKIE LARMER—"Ain't so!" is her favorite expression. This southern belle plans to become a nurse. She loves pork chops, ice cream, and sewing, but snobs rate very low with this senior. "Rebels" most memorable experience is moving north.

SUSANNE LEVAN—"Susie" has her heart set on becoming an airplane navigator. When she says, "Darn the luck," she is probably referring to conceited people. "Susie" favors swimming, crafts, and French fries

SUSAN LIGHTER—"Susie" loves to swim and eat cheeseburgers while arts and crafts compose her other spare moments. "My achin' back" she states over an English speech. The 1953 Senior Prom and a certain college junior stand out in this future Occupational Therapist's memory.

EILEEN LIGHTNER—"Eileen" is planning to become a medical secretary in the near future. "Sugar," she ejaculates when Prof. springs a chemistry test. A certain 1952 graduate and radio announcing please her, but she despises hillbilly music.

JEANNE LITTLE — A future stenographer, "Jeanie" will always remember her induction into the "Quill and Scroll." Prevaricators and English speeches rank low to this senior who often asks, "Do you think?" She is fond of French fries, chile con carne, collecting miniature dogs, and a certain "Chevie" (the car? ?).

DELORES LIVINGSTON—"For heaven's sake!" but pokey junior high students peeve "Dee." This future typist always gets a thrill out of reading, dancing, and eating steak. Do you want to see "Dee" smile? Just mention the prom her sophomore year.

ALICE McDANNELL—"You'll find out" that "Alice" really likes march music and Fords but dislikes selfish people. In her pastime, "Alice" enjoys reading and going for rides in the car (Dick's?). She will always remember the Spring Prom her sophomore year. "Alice" will attend Wilson College.

EVELYN McDANNELL—"Evie" will move to Florida to become a bookkeeper after graduation. She loves to drive a car "and how" she will remember changing her first flat tire. "Noisy and stuck-up people are really out," says "Evie"

DOROTHY McGLAUGHLIN—"Oh my cow" how Dorothy hates socks and play shoes together. French fries and cokes top this gal's menu. "Dottie's" most memorable day was when she met D. S

KENNETH McGLAUGHLIN—"How can you tell?" "Doak" likes girls but hates "cats" and teachers? Hunting and car racing hold top priority with this senior. "Doak" plans to join the Navy. Ask him about that first trip to the office.

BETTY MARING—"Betsy" will join the Air Force after graduation. She loves to skate and eat apple pie "a la mode" ("and good"). This "206" gal never will forget the day she walked into the boys' room at the State Farm Show.

JOANNE MARTIN—"Jeepers creepers" "Joanne" hates short assemblies but loves to travel, swim, and go to the movies. She never will forget her trip home from Chicago. Millersville State Teachers College is seen in the crystal ball for this Fairfield gal.

BARBARA MILLER—"You know it!" exclaims "Barb" who likes dill pickles and shrimp but abhors stuck-up people. This soon-to-be Dental Tech. never will forget July 16, 1948. This girl is a roller skating and howling fan.

MARIE MILLER—This future housewife likes to draw and read. She could make a meal out of hamburgers, French fries, and strawberry ice cream. "Holy cow," she hates to see high heels worn with socks.

ROBERT MILLER—"Kiss me, baby; nothing makes me sick!" exclaims "Poss." He likes hunting and fishing but how 'bout "cats" and snobbish people? "Poss" never will forget the championship football season. He plans to coach after attending College.

SENIOR BIOGRAPHIES

RONALD MILLER—This shy guy really loves southern fried chicken, movies, fishing, and football games but turns thumbs down to show offs and "catty" people. "Ronnie" will always remember the day his brother came home from Korea. He will either enter the service or college.

PATRICIA MORITZ—"Pat's" most memorable experience is her first day at G.H.S. Among her hobbies "Pat" includes cooking and sewing. "Holy cow!" but this future secretary hates stuck up people.

MAUREEN MURRAY—If you ask "Myrt" what she likes, she quickly responds "Cheerleading at football games." How 'bout that "A" in a shorthand exam? Here is a girl that really dislikes shorthand speed tests but enjoys study halls.

BARBARA NEARY Dancing to "Till I Waltz Again With You" and eating hamburgers and French fries is "Barb's" idea of fun. "You crazy thing you" laughs this future Air Force gal, who dislikes conceited people. Her freshman year never will be forgotten.

DELORES NEELY—Plaids vs. stripes really peeve this gal. French fries and steak are her favorite meal while reading and going to the movies are her favorite pastimes. Looking into the future, we find "Delores" attending business school. Her sixteenth birthday will always be a bright spot in her life.

WILLIAM ORNER "Don't know, do you?" asks this future Merchant Marine who likes to eat all kinds of desserts. He's crazy about sports, but what about school, Bill? Playing an electric guitar occupies much of this senior's time. He never will forget his trip to West Virginia three years ago.

DOROTHY PARR—"Don't count your chickens before they're hatched," warns "Dottie." She hates to wear high heels; loves to play basketball. This future secretary never will forget her first day in G.H.S.

PHELPS PENNINGTON—"Phelps" certainly won't forget his initiation into the "Mask and Wig" or the embarrassing day he almost dropped a pipe on Mr. Lane's head. "You're out of your mind!" exclaims this future Gettysburg College man to stuck-up girls, but he loves sea food and dramatics.

GERALD PETERS—This future college man really likes our class queen and cars, but turns thumbs down on conceited people. "There you go!" he exclaims when reminded of that embarrassing Hanover football game. "Jerry" can't forget his first car and those hunting trips.

HAROLD PLANK—A chicken noodle soup fan, this future farmer exclaims, "Aw heck!" when he encounters people with bad manners. "Junie" always has enjoyed farming and just ask him about that trip to Penn's Cave.

JOANNE PLANK Here's a gal who really enjoys sewing but says no dice to bossy people. "Isn't that hideous!" exclaims this future telephone operator who will always remember her trip to Williamsport. Just call her "Joey."

SHIRLEY PLANK—Movies, fried chicken, and swimming appeal to "Sally," who plans to be a telephone operator. "What's that?" she remembers her first date with a certain fellow, but, oh, the embarrassment of forgetting those English speeches. "Sally" hates nosey people.

WALTER PLANK—"Plankie" likes small animals and thoughts of his trip to State College on a judging team. "Beat it!" this fellow exclaims to women. Walter, who loves to hunt, fish, and raise rabbits, plans to be a farmer and raise small animals.

RICHARD RAY—Food and a certain girl really rate high with "Rich." while junior high students and teachers are on the bottom of his list. "You're right!" exclaims "Rich," when asked if he remembers the Carlisle football game this year. He plans to attend a music conservatory after graduation.

GENEVRAL REAVER Did you ever hear anyone exclaiming "Get out of my face?" That's "Ginger." This friendly senior remembers her first part in a play and the time she fell in the door of a diner. "Ginny" really likes French fries, steak, and dancing, but can't stand snobs.

JACK REBERT—"I reckon so" mutters "Cruddy" when asked if he really dislikes school. However, he does go for food and girls. "Jack" won't forget the night he joined the National Guards. In the crystal ball we see a career in the service or construction work.

PEGGY REED—"Jimminy Pete" mutters "Peg" when she spies gossipers. A future Navy nurse, she really likes fried chicken and hillbilly music. Peg won't forget the day she passed her driver's test, and she just can't spend enough time driving.

RICHARD REEDY—"Wayne," who really loves to travel, will always remember a trip to Baltimore. However, he wishes he could forget the day someone stole his clothes while he was swimming. "Holy cow!" he mutters, but he really likes chile con carne and roller skating.

AGNES ROGAN—An easy gal to get along with, "Aggie" likes almost everything and dislikes nothing in particular. "How about that!" she exclaims when she thinks of chicken and dumplings and her junior play. She loves to dance, and plans to visit Ireland some day.

SENIOR BIOGRAPHIES

BARBARA SADLER—"Sadie" admires people with manners but dislikes gossipers. This lass, who remembers attending the Military Ball, is looking ahead to a future of work in Washington. "You're out of your mind" she utters to those who think she dislikes chicken pie and playing the piano.

JOAN SANDERS—Our telephone operator has fond memories of January second of this year. "Joanne" loves dancing, cheese crackers, and tea but turns thumbs down on "party poopers" and raisins. Oh! that embarrassing time she left money in the Strand Theatre box office all night.

JOYCE SANDERS—"Hey now!" "Joycie,"—what about being chosen most athletic girl in the class! A future secretary, she really likes dancing, movies, and people with personality, but she certainly despises snobs. Do you see that gal with a car full of pals?—that's Joyce.

KENNETH SCHULTZ—This future Navy man can always be found hunting and fishing in his leisure time. "How about that!" he'll never forget when he walked into his girl friend's family reunion. "Ken" enjoys eating crab cakes and drinking root beer.

FRED SCHUTT—This future mechanic or telephone lineman likes to run around with the gang, but he doesn't like girls who are always late. "Well," he says when thinking of cheeseburgers, milkshakes, and his "Olds" convertible. Swimming and camping are his favorite pastimes.

HELEN SCHWARTZ—"How delightful!" was that blind date for the spring prom of 1951. "Billie" spends a great deal of leisure time on needlework and dreaming to good music (with a certain someone?). People who try to make up your mind for you are strictly "Taboo" with "Billie."

SAMUEL SCOTT—Music—doesn't matter if it's dancing or trumpet—"Sam's" all ears and feet. "Sam" remembers running out of gas—was that "Decker" he was with? If people aren't cracking gum, "Sam's" happy. A cheery "Did ja!" will answer all your attempts at conversation.

SARAH SCOTT—In "Sara's" mind, "You're neat!" if you like swimming, sports and dancing. However, bad sportsmanship and stuck-up people bring a scowl to our "unconscious" head majorette. College will develop that scrapbook she enjoys keeping now.

NANCY SHIELDS—Collecting jewelry and playing the piano come first to "Nan." She says "for pete's sake" to stuck up people and story tellers. "Nan" remembers best her first trip to New York City. Eating French fries, hamburgers, and writing to a certain someone claim a lot of her time.

MARLIN SHINDLEDECKER—"Moptop" likes to spend his time collecting stamps. He would like to become a member of the Air Force, and he turns thumbs down on girls that swear. "Moptop" can be heard saying "How about that!" when someone mentions his being captain of an Intramural Court team.

CAROLYN SHRIVER—Dancing and riding around in the summertime are the favorite pastimes of "Carolyn." She does not like snobbish people and can often be heard saying "How about that!" Fried chicken, mashed potatoes and chocolate pie rank high with this future secretary, who had her most memorable experience on Christmas Eve of 1952.

LORING SHULTZ—Someone mentions ice cream and strawberries and "Lorin" is right there—especially if you suggest visiting a place of historical interest also. "I think you're crazy" if you don't enjoy dating. Girls, check up on your manners to please "Lorin."

LLOYD SITES—"God bless America" is the favorite expression of "Lloyd." T-bone steak and building model airplanes rank high on his list of favorites, while drinking ranks very low with this future sailor. "Lloyd" will always remember when the National Guards went to Indiantown Gap.

JAY SIXEAS—"Dolph's" favorite pastimes are eating and sports. He easily recalls "The Battle of Reynolds' Woods." This future college man or sailor says "No stuff" to girls that smoke. Eating French fries, steak, watching TV, and girls constitute a lot of "Dolph's" time.

ELEANOR SMITH—French fries and Boston cream pie bring a gleam to "Smitty's" eyes. She likes to spend her time taking pictures and talking. "Smitty" is often heard saying, "Holy jumpin' jupiter." People who think they are better than anyone else don't rank very high with her.

HELEN SPEELMAN—"Come on, hurry up" is a favorite expression of "Helen." In her spare time you will find her collecting pictures or reading. Eating fried chicken and French fries also occupies some of her time. This future telephone operator's pet peeve is seeing girls smoke.

CHARLOTTE SPONSELLER—To people who try to show off and don't know how "Sponnie" says, "Quit your behaving and act right." Secretarial work and a "certain Biglerville fellow" rate high in her future. While "Sponnie" collects pictures, she also enjoys bowling.

DORIS SPONSELLER—Writing letters, eating, sleeping, and collecting dolls are all favorite pastimes of "Doris." "Pug" is very fond of French fries and shrimp. She is often heard saying "Let's face it." Picnicking at Calley with Mike, "Numbers," Mr. Rote, and Deb are well remembered by "Pug."

SENIOR BIOGRAPHIES

LEO M. STAIGER—"He's right tonight!" if he's playing sports or swimming. According to "Staig" these, plus fishing, make a perfect pastime program. "Staig" remembers the Class A Invitation Track Meet at Shippensburg in '52. After the service you'll find him on a dairy farm.

LEO STEINOUR—"Which way do we go, George?" This is what "Ringo" is fond of saying. He likes to go to movies, but he doesn't care for basketball. His freshman year is best remembered by him. "Ringo" likes to spend his spare time shooting pool.

ROBERT STRAUSBAUGH—Did you hear "Bob" utter "How about that?" when G.H.S. won the South Penn Football Conference? After the U. S. Marines, "Bob" hopes to be an engineer. He's a fiend for driving, especially to Hanover.

NORMA SWOPE—"What's that you say?" Someone showing off and smoking? This isn't for "Swope," who passes her spare time collecting pictures and driving a particular Mercury. Secretarial work calls her in the near future.

ANNA TAUGHINBAUGH—"Plant me now and dig me later." Let's dig "Mickey" first and wish her luck as a secretary when we plant her in the future. This capable majorette doesn't care for plaid blouses and flowered skirts together. Swimming takes first place on her list of hobbies, which also includes movies.

LOIS TEMPLE—"Now don't get salty," is "Lois'" favorite reply to catty people. During the next years at college "Lois" will surely enjoy swimming and dancing. At mealtime we'll find her with an ample supply of spaghetti and meatballs.

DARREL THOMAS—"The Battle of Reynolds' Wood" is well remembered by "Dee." In his leisure time "Dee" likes to listen to popular music or to see a good movie. Homework doesn't rank high with him, but steak, cokes, and French fries appeal to this boy who is often heard saying "C'est la guerre."

RALPH THOMPSON—"Rudy" spends a lot of his time hunting and roller skating. Anything "could be better" than a fickle girl, but nothing can beat his trip to Florida. His favorite menu includes steak and French fries.

BETTY TRESSLER—"Oh my golly!" There goes "Sis" dreaming of a "certain Fourth of July" and "Jim." After experience in the secretarial field she plans to let those "wedding bells" chime. While both thumbs are down on stuck-up girls, her fingers are busy crocheting.

RICHARD WALTER—"Ick!" Why do people have to gripe about the records played at dances? "Dick" enjoys collecting records and working with dramatics—especially "Mumbo Jumbo." This future M. P. spends his time listening to good music and taking long walks.

SYLVIA WARREN—"Boy! You know it," is one of the many sayings of "Sylvia," who likes to spend her time swimming and bicycle riding. She also likes cheeseburgers and lemon cokes. Junior high students don't rank very high with this future secretary. "Sylvia" well remembers a day in Philadelphia last February.

SHIRLEY WASHINGTON—This little gal, "Pee Wee," enjoys dancing to her record collection. "Cool yourself," is her advice to disagreeable people. This future clerk typist remembers a special Christmas dance at G.H.S.

HILDA WEIKERT—Going to the movies and dancing are several of "Hilde's" favorites. On rainy days, she can be found working on her scrapbook and photograph album. "Hildie" can be heard saying, "Well, now, I wouldn't say that," to those awful English speeches. Cheeseburgers and chocolate frosts rate high with this future secretary.

HERBERT WETZEL—"You don't say so!" states "Herb," who is very fond of fishing and baseball. However, he doesn't care for people who use "ponies" in chemistry class. This future farmer well remembers his trip to Luray Caverns, and he is always ready to eat French fries and steak.

ROBERT WHITED—"Bobby" is very fond of southern fried chicken and spends a lot of his spare time going to the movies and skating. This future auto mechanic well remembers the day the Junior and Senior Ag classes went to Baltimore.

SYLVA WILLIAMS—French fries, reading, and swimming—what more could you want? If two-faced people could be eliminated, you'd draw a smile from "Syv." This future secretary says "'Chure' it is," when asked if playing the piano is her favorite pastime. (What about "Skip?")

THOMAS WINTER—Silly girls rank parallel to English speeches on "Jack's" "pet peeve list." "Holy balls of fire" how will "Jack" ever decide between fishing and basketball? This future dentist need not be feared until after four years of college.

MARY ANN WITHEROW—"Oh suffer, suffer, suffer!" says "Patty." She likes basketball but doesn't think much of people who think they are big shots. Steak and French fries head "Patty's" menu. She will always remember her surprise party on her eighteenth birthday.

SUZANNE ZIEGLER—If anyone says steak and mushrooms then "Sue" is sure to come running. She says, "Oh no!" to people who don't accept responsibilities. Reading, swimming, dancing and keeping her scrapbook up to date, take up "Sue's" spare time. This future teacher of languages well remembers the day "Annie" threw her shoe out of the English class window.

Educated People Save

It is told that Indians of Paraguay plowed all day with oxen and then killed the oxen for supper. The primitive mind gave no thought to the morrow.

The habit of saving is the mark of the educated man and woman. Also, it is one of the privileges enjoyed in a free America.
